

Sunday Assembly Reading Code of Conduct

Sunday Assembly Reading is a community-based organisation.

Everyone who participates in the Sunday Assembly organising team should ensure that all actions should reflect the values of the movement.

This includes:

- Helping each other be right, not wrong.
- Look for ways to make ideas work, not for reasons that they won't.
- Don't make negative assumptions – about yourselves or anyone else.
- Offer support – and accept it when it comes your way.
- Criticise ideas, not people.
- Act with respect and care for others.
- Think about the words and actions you are using – be kind, not offensive.
- Consider how your words or actions may be interpreted both offline and online.
- Do everything with enthusiasm.
- Respect people's time – be on time for meetings, for helping run the Assembly etc.
- If things are going well, or if they aren't – tell someone! Keep others in the picture.
- Most of all be nice, have fun and join in.

In addition to these values, we expect every organiser to abide by the laws of the country the Assembly exists within.

I have read and agree with Sunday Assembly Reading's Code of Conduct. I agree to follow the values described above and understand that I may be removed as a participant if I don't follow this guidance.
